

Fairfield Farm Trust comprises a specialist college known as Fairfield Farm College for students with learning disabilities and an animal park and café known as Hope Nature Centre. The College is situated in the village of Dilton Marsh in Wiltshire. The 26-acre farm site includes well-resourced teaching areas, a student common room, conference room, café and a farm shop. Hope Nature Centre is located in Southwick Country Park, Trowbridge, there is a café, shop and animal park.

Horticulture

Maintenance

Retail

School Link Programmes

Bespoke packages, access to Animal Care, Horse Studies, Horticulture and Enterprise.

£55 per 1/2 day session (max 6) with own support

£50 per student for full day in-fill (can bring own support)

Additional support available at £19.11 p/hr

Supports transition to post-16.

Work Experience Placements

Placements at Fairfield Farm College include Catering, Retail, Customer Care, Office Skills, Café or flexible to meet needs e.g. Farming, Animal Care, Horticulture.

£50 per day (can bring own support if required)

Additional support available at £19.11 p/hr.

Trainees at Hope Nature Centre

Short and long-term training opportunities for adults with learning difficulties in the Café, Kitchen or Animal Park

£35 per day for trainees that are more independent

£50 per day for trainees that need greater support

Trainees are supported with CV writing and skills to help with other work opportunities.

Catering

Café

Animal Management